Preface

This is a sequel to The Hebrew Verbal System, a composition about Hebrew verbs that I began in or there about 2006—a compilation of Hebrew verbs appearing in the Miqra arranged according to frequency of orrurrennce, in the order giving the word, its frequency, qere/kethib, parsing, verses, BDB (the renowned Hebrew dictionary), root, Strong number, and a verse from the Hebrew text and Its English translation according to the Jewish Publication Society of the Tanakh. The Font used for the Hebrew text is in Ezra SIL SR. Further improvement would be shared whenever available. Errors and omissions would be inevitable; double check alongside when using.
The entries in this volume are arranged by frequency of occurrence aimed to facilitate convenient and easy learning hence they are grouped under grammatical categories aligned in the order of each respective chapter as in The Hebrew Verbal System, except the chapter on Hebrew weak verbs, an inventory of Hebrew rare stem verbs instead. A list of Qamets Hatuf words is assigned as the last section.
The larger collection—consisting the whole corpus of all words appearing in the Hebrew Bible, nouns and so on including, for the study on the Hebrew verbal system and I have them assembled into Excel spread sheet format which has been compiled into a simple dictionary or lexicon—is separately made available on the Internet.
Thus far there seems available no dictionary or lexicon or vocabulary handbook of the Hebrew Bible whre the verbs are classified under each respective grammatical categories, the current attempt could be the first of its kind in Hebrew lexicography.
To the same folks this volume is dedicated as those in The Hebrew Verbal System, namely, my wife and the two daughters, son-in-law and grand-daughter. Happy learning.
